Heartland Community College
Instructional Development Center
Spring 2007 Workshop/Brown Bag Lunch
Schedule
PSSSSSSSST

The IDC
Promotes knowledge of Self, Students, Syllabus,
Sources, and aSSessment in Support of Teaching and learning.

IDC Open House (Support):
- Wednesday, January 24th 12-1:00 and Continued
- Wednesday, January 24th 5-6:00

Come learn about the functions of the IDC, discuss the Spring 2007 workshop schedule, meet with IDC staff, enter your name for book drawings, and share some snacks and beverages with us!

Brown Bag Lunch or Dinner #1 (Self): Promotion Portfolios
- Tuesday, February 13th 12-12:50 and
- Wednesday, February 14th 12-12:50

Past members of Promotion Review Teams and/or experienced portfolio presenters will be available to answer questions about best practices with respect to the construction, organization, presentation and formatting of your promotion portfolio.

Technology Fridays #1 (Sources): Variable Topics
- Friday, February, 16th 12-1:30

In order to continue the theme of our Fall 06 Best Practices day, over the course of six Friday afternoons during the semester, we’ll engage in workshops that show faculty how to use instructional technology in their classes. The topics will vary but will include MovieMaker, Camtasia, ipods, HCC Portal, WebCT refreshers, Excel, and more.
Writing Across the College #1 (Support): Variable Topics
Monday, February 19th 3-3:50

HCC Writing Faculty Rob Mawyer and Jennifer Swartout will host discussions concerning ways to create, implement, and assess a variety of writing activities for your classes.

Brown Bag Lunch or Dinner #2 (Students): Student Motivation
Wednesday, February 21st 12-12:50 and
Wednesday, February 21st 5-5:50

Let’s continue the theme of our Spring 07 Best Practices day. What do you do to motivate students to dream about the future, to do their best, to see the big picture, to understand the value of an education, and to act ethically and responsibly? Let’s talk about your experiences, best practices, and the existing research.

Workshop #1(aSSessment): Classroom Assessment Techniques
Monday, February 26th 12-12:50 and Repeated
Monday, February 26th 5-5:50 and Repeated
Wednesday, February 28th 4-4:50

In this interactive, fast-paced workshop, participants will use the classic teachings of Thomas Angelo and Patricia Cross to identify, create, and organize classroom assessment techniques for their courses. The workshop will focus on practical applications designed to solicit student feedback in order to better inform faculty teaching. Participants will be encouraged to share their current techniques and experiences with classroom assessment.

Writing Across the College #2 (Support): Variable Topics
Thursday, March 1st 2-2:50

HCC Writing Faculty Rob Mawyer and Jennifer Swartout will host discussions concerning ways to create, implement, and assess a variety of writing activities for your classes.
Technology Fridays #2 (Sources): Variable Topics
Friday, March 2nd  12-1:30

In order to continue the theme of our Fall 06 Best Practices day, over the course of six Friday afternoons during the semester, we’ll engage in workshops that show faculty how to use instructional technology in their classes. The topics will vary but will include MovieMaker, Camtasia, ipods, HCC Portal, WebCT refreshers, Excel, and more.

Workshop #2A (Sources): Databases
Tuesday, March 6th  12-12:50 and Repeated
Tuesday, March 6th  5-  5:50

Learn search strategies, the best databases for your subject area and get a sneak peak of exciting Library innovations to make searching easier for you and your students. You won’t settle for Google-based papers after hearing what credible sources are available for your students.

Workshop #2B (Sources): Copyright: It’s Not as Scary as You Think
Wednesday, March 7th  12-12:50 and Repeated
Thursday, March 8th  4-  4:50

Is it legal to make multiple copies for distribution in the classroom? Can you show videos in class that warn “For Home Use Only”? You’ll be pleasantly surprised as you learn to apply copyright law in a classroom setting. After learning the Four Fair Use Factors we will apply them to real life scenarios so be sure to bring your own copyright conundrums.

Writing Across the College #3 (Support): Variable Topics
Wednesday, March 21st  2-2:50

HCC Writing Faculty Rob Mawyer and Jennifer Swartout will host discussions concerning ways to create, implement, and assess a variety of writing activities for your classes.

Brown Bag Lunch or Dinner #3 (Students): Troubled vs. Troubling Students: What should you say and how should you say it?
Thursday, March 22nd  12-12:50 and Repeated
Thursday, March 22nd  5-5:50
Technology Fridays #3 (Sources): Variable Topics
Friday, March 23rd   12-1:30

In order to continue the theme of our Fall 06 Best Practices day, over the course of six Friday afternoons during the semester, we’ll engage in workshops that show faculty how to use instructional technology in their classes. The topics will vary but will include MovieMaker, Camtasia, ipods, HCC Portal, WebCT refreshers, Excel, and more.

Workshop #3 (aSSessment): Grading Rubrics
Monday, March 26th  12-12:50 and Repeated
Monday, March 26th  5- 5:50    and Repeated
Thursday, March 29th  4- 4:50

This workshop will introduce the use of rubrics in the assessment and grading process. We will discuss the rationale for using rubrics, the use and misuse of rubrics, and different types of rubrics. Then, participants will create their own grading rubrics for assignments from their courses.

Brown Bag Lunch or Dinner #4 (Sources): Technology in (and out of) the Classroom
Monday, April 2nd  12-12:50 and
Monday, April 2nd  5-5:50

WebCT, Flash, Podcasting, clickers, SMART Boards, Video Streaming, wireless internet access, e-portfolios…What technology is out there to help you and your students with the teaching and learning process. We’ll talk about uses and misuses of a variety of technologies in the classroom.

Technology Fridays #4 (Sources): Variable Topics
Friday, April 6th   12-1:30

In order to continue the theme of our Fall 06 Best Practices day, over the course of six Friday afternoons during the semester, we’ll engage in workshops that show faculty how to use instructional technology in their classes. The topics will vary but will include MovieMaker, Camtasia, ipods, HCC Portal, WebCT refreshers, Excel, and more.
Workshop #4 (Sources): Variable Topics
  Monday, April 9th  12-12:50 and Repeated
  Monday, April 9th  5- 5:50 and Repeated

Possible workshop topics include student learning styles, concept maps, faculty research projects, conducting classroom research, internationalizing the curriculum, diversity, and multiculturalism.

Writing Across the College #4 (Support): Variable Topics
  Tuesday, April 10th  12-12:50

HCC Writing Faculty Rob Mawyer and Jennifer Swartout will host discussions concerning ways to create, implement, and assess a variety of writing activities for your classes.

Workshop #5 (Sources): Variable Topics
  Wednesday, April 18th  12-12:50 and Repeated
  Wednesday, April 18th  5- 5:50 and Repeated
  Thursday, April 19th  4- 4:50

Possible workshop topics include student learning styles, concept maps, faculty research projects, conducting classroom research, internationalizing the curriculum, diversity, and multiculturalism.

Brown Bag Lunch or Dinner #5 (Students): Faculty and Student Co-Curricular Activities.
  Tuesday, April 24th  12-12:50 and
  Tuesday, April 24th  5-5:50

Technology Fridays #5 (Sources): Variable Topics
  Friday, April 27th  12-1:30

In order to continue the theme of our Fall 06 Best Practices day, over the course of six Friday afternoons during the semester, we’ll engage in workshops that show faculty how to use instructional technology in their classes. The topics will vary but will include MovieMaker, Camtasia, ipods, HCC Portal, WebCT refreshers, Excel, and more.
Workshop #6 (Sources): Variable Topics
Tuesday, May 1st 12-12:50 and Repeated
Tuesday, May 1st 4-4:50 and Repeated
Wednesday, May 2nd 5-5:50

Possible workshop topics include student learning styles, concept maps, faculty research projects, conducting classroom research, internationalizing the curriculum, diversity, and multi-culturalism.

Technology Fridays #6 (Sources): Variable Topics
Friday, May 4th 12-1:30

In order to continue the theme of our Fall 06 Best Practices day, over the course of six Friday afternoons during the semester, we’ll engage in workshops that show faculty how to use instructional technology in their classes. The topics will vary but will include MovieMaker, Camtasia, ipods, HCC Portal, WebCT refreshers, Excel, and more.

Other Spring 2007 Events and Information:

A schedule for WebCT Certification will be out soon. We also will add a WebCT “refresher” session or two during the semester.

All this information and more can be found on the IDC website: http://www.heartland.edu/idc/
Please watch for additional IDC events throughout the semester.

Finally, please note that our staff is available to you on a walk-in basis for the following times.

Jean Marie Taylor  Monday 12-2:30, Thursday 9:30-12
Tom Corcoran  Monday through Friday 8-1
Chris Kletz  Tuesday and Thursday 12:30-3:30

If you have larger and/or longer term projects, call us and we’ll do our best to work with you.