Tech Tuesdays
with Media Technologist Tom Corcoran

About:
Open to all Faculty and Staff of Heartland Community College
For more information: x.8427
tom.corcoran@heartland.edu

Screen Recording with Camtasia Studio
Learn out how to record anything you do on a computer screen and share it with others. Add audio narration to PowerPoint presentations, record yourself navigating to particular places on the Internet, show an audience how to use a piece of software, and more.

Using the FlipVideo Camera and Digital Audio Recorder
Want to create simple video or audio but don’t know where to start? Using these two easy to use devices you can record, edit and share video and audio. Both piece of equipment are available for check out in the IDC (SCB 2315).

Graphic Design Principles for Flyer Design
Covering graphic design principles for basic flyer design you can use on your own communication. Use these principles and see an improvement in the quality of your own flyers and other designs.

Basic HTML/CSS for Online Instruction
Would you like to know more about the basics of how web pages are created and designed? This workshop will cover Basic Web site HTML and Cascading Style Sheet design for use in online instruction.

GoogleDocs in Higher Education with Instructor John Muench
Using tools such as Google Docs you can collaborate with multiple users on Word Documents, Excel Spreadsheets or PowerPoint Slides all online.