

To my family

John Ziemkowski

I know I've never been the ideal man
I've put my body through all types of hell
I've given you all the sleight of hand
For the longest you could never tell.
Every day you could never tell how I was dying.
My unhappiness I could never show
But I truly was trying
Meetings were essential, I had to go
I had treatment for 28 days
I missed my family but could never be saved
Life passed me by, I was in a haze
But I've always been the guy to have been misbehaved
Momma I truly tried to be saved
