

Heartland Community College Child Development Lab

Participation, Procedures, Code of Conduct Form

Disclaimer:

We reserve the right to dismiss you from our premises should your participation be distracting, unsafe, and/or harmful to yourself or others.

Observation Participants May:

- Bring indoor shoes to wear.
- Use adult bathrooms.

Observation Participants May Not:

- Be under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or any mind-altering substances.
- Take photos or videos of students, CDL Specialists, Lab Assistants, or CDL staff without specific permissions.
- Be on your cell phone in the classroom. If you have an emergency need you may step out of the classroom.
- Have personal medications within reach of any program participants – this includes adults and children.
- Bring food or have food delivered here on your behalf.
- Use bathrooms in the classrooms.
- Facilitate diaper changes or pottyting.
- Facilitate the preparation or giving of foods, beverages, or bottles.
- Respond to medical and/or emergency needs of children and adult staff.

By signing this form, I certify that the above is true; that I have read and reviewed the Participation, Procedures, and Code of Conduct Form and will adhere to these guidelines while at the Heartland Community College Child Development Lab. If I am not adhering to these guidelines, I acknowledge that I will be asked to leave the facility. I also certify that all rules and safety protocols will be followed while on property at the HCC CDL.

Observation Participant Signature

Date