Craving a cute craft critter to cuddle?

Learn Japanese amigurumi or crochet to create!

Continuing Ed expert handicrafts instructor Lauren Pruter, featured on our cover, has been knitting and crocheting for 20 years and loves whipping up these adorable collectibles.

Her summer course, Cute Crochet Creations, guides you through the Japanese art of amigurumi as you create a pumpkin and another creation of your choosing. See page 4 for more information.

Lauren also likes to make clothes and loves to “make something completely unique that you can’t find in a store” — for herself and as gifts for friends. She taught herself to knit and crochet. She said hands-on instruction gives the individual touch for those learning the craft.

She taught knitting this spring to adults and will be instructing adults and kids this summer in a variety of classes, including Learn to Crochet and Beginner Knitting for Grades 6-8, and Learn Loom Knitting for Grades 3-5 (check out our Kids@Heartland listings online) along with the adult amigurumi class.

If you love creating with your hands, we have your summer plans sewn up. Consider taking Let’s Sew a Garment!, Wire Whimsy: A Focal Bead Pendant, Resin Jewelry for Beginners, and Applied Ceramics: Handmade Planter among our offerings. Check out pages 4 and 5 for details.

So, soak up those warm rays and some knowledge as you learn new hobbies and engage your minds this summer.

On the cover:

Continuing Ed instructor Lauren Pruter is a fan of the Japanese art of amigurumi, using crochet to produce a host of lovable creations like the ones on our cover. She’ll be teaching adults and kids classes this summer.
