WORKSHOP

Trustee Andria Merkle gave opening remarks and thanked the Board and student leadership present for coming together to meet for discussion. Introductions around the room were made. The Student Government Association reviewed its annual goals, all focused around increasing student engagement. Katie Klingbeil from NAMI gave an overview of the current trends in mental health for college students and a brief summary of services available at Heartland Community College. Groups, already seated together, were then asked to discuss various topics at their tables regarding student mental health. Staff members were instructed to take notes, which would be collected and assembled later.

Trustee Tom Whitt motioned to adjourn the meeting. Trustee Josh Crockett seconded. The meeting adjourned at approximately 5:51 pm.
